BROOKLYNS CAPTURE ANOTHER GAME FROM THE LOUISVILLES. Cincinnatis Defeat the New Yorks Bostons

Take Second Place from the St. Louis Team-Chicago Again Outplays Philadelphia-Pittsburgs Bracing Up-Notes. With Hughes in the box yesterday, the Brooklyns again took the Louisvilles into camp rather easily. They also increased their lead to 69 points, as St. Louis not only dropped a close game to Baltimore, but also surren-dered second place to the Bostons, who were successful in a heavy-hitting contest with the Cleveland tail-enders. The Cincinnatis took the rubber from the New Yorks and the latter fropped back into ninth place, the Pittaburgs. with another victory over the Washingtons, going ahead of Manager Day's players. Ewing's men are still three points ahead of the Baltimores and are only twelve behind the Philadelphias, who lost their third straight game to the Chicagos. The latter are close on in their play. The results: Brooklyn, 7; Louisville, 1. Cincinnati, 5: New York, 4 Boston, 16; Cleveland, 10. Chicago, 6; Philadelphia, 1. Pitteburg, 5. Washington, 1. Baltimore, 4; St. Louis, 8, BROOKLYN, 7; LOUISVILLE, 1. Pitcher Hughes of the Brockipus has come to be regarded as one of the finest workers in the profession. He has pitched in eleven games to date and won ten. It was his turn yesterday to take up the ball, and the way he mowed the Louisvilles down delighted the 2,500 enthusiasts who turned out to see the fun. The Californian has magnificent control, lightning speed and a slow ball that made the Kentuckians weary from their efforts to land it in safe territory. Hughes also fielded his position superbly, and worked so rapidly that the game, though one-sided, was swift and linteresting. The Brooklyns played confidently and smartly behind him, turning out three pretty double plays in the infield. Dahlen made a couple of mistakes, but both were excusable, as they resulted from difficult chances. Jones, who has been laid up with a sprained ankle, took his regular place in centre field for the first time since the opening of the championship genson, and he made his presence felt. He got two hits, made a fine running calch of Dexter's short fly in the cighth, and scored from second on an attempted put-out at first by brilliant sprinting and a neat side. Manager Hanion gave a much-needed rest to Farrell and placed John Grim behind the hat. The latter handled Hughes's perplexing delivery with skill and pleased his many friends, who cheered him at every opportunity.

Manager Clarke of the Louisvilles decided to shake up his team because of the two defeats on Decoration Day. He put Decker on the bench and substituted Catcher Powers on first base. Powers showed in the first inning that he was not equal to the emergency and Decker went back in a hurry. Leach played a good game at short field in spite of two costly errors. Wagner made the sar play of the day when he stopped Dahlen's terrille smash close to third with his right hand and got the runner with a great throw. Hans has played remarkable ball in this series, nearly all of his playe being of a sensational order. There were two kieks made. One by Keller on a called strike Pitcher Hughes of the Brooklyne has come to be regarded as one of the finest workers in the Otherwise there was no wrangling and no delay.

The Louisvilles opened as if they meant to treat Hughes roughly. Hoy and Clarke landed base hits in left, and Dexter bunted with such skill that McGans had no chance to stop him at first, and also was unable to throw to the plate in time to shut off Hoy. Wagner's sacrifice put runners on second and third, but as Powers struck out, Grim caught Dexter off second with a throw to Daly.

The Brooklyns made five runs in their half of this inning. Casey was out, but Keeler dropped a pretty single in left. Kelley's bid for a home run was captured by Clarke in deep left near the foul line. Dallen almost knocked a board out of the right field fence with a double bagger and Keeler scored. Jones angled, bringing Dahlen home, and then stole second cleanly. McGans hit to Leach, whose throw to first was wide. Jones sprinted all the way to the plate, and heat Powers's throw by hard slide. McGans stole second, and Daly's bunt, which he beat out, was thrown wildly by Powling, McGann erossing the rubber. Daly took third on Grim's rattling base hit to right, and made the fifth run, while Grim drew a throw to second, and then made Leach run him down.

throw to second, and then made Leach run him down.

Both pitchers settled down after that, the Louisvilles getting but one bit off Hughes up to the eighth and landing four runners on bases. The Brooklyns didn't make another safe bit off Dowling until the sixth, when Jones and Daiy nailed two, with no runs, however. With one out in the last half of the seventh the Brooklyns added two more runs to their string. Casey singled, and hustied to third as Leach threw Keeler's bounder over Decker's head. Reliey shot a base hit to left, and both mannin. Dahlen flied to Dexter and Kelley was caught off first.

Clarke's hot grounder hit the deaf mute in the leg and put him out. Dexter sent a short fly to left centre, which looked like a hit, but Jones nipped it after a sprint. A fast double play by Hughes, Dahlen, and McGann ended the game. The LOUISVILLE. BROOKLYN.

Grady was more to blame for the loss of the game to the Cincinnati, 5; New York, 4.

Grady was more to blame for the loss of the game to the Cincinnatis yesterday than any other of the local players. It was in the third inning that Mike sent a hot bounder through Corcoran's legs, but he laid too far off first base and was caught in apping by Hawley. Beckley, who caught the ritcher's throw sent the ball to Corcoran and Grady was nabbed by fully a yard when he made a dash for second. When Assistant Umpire Andrews called Grady out, the latter made a threatening move toward the official, but haited after taking a few steps. Wilson followed with a single and scored on Davis's three-bagger. Had Grady kept his eyes oven he would have also tallied and probably Davis as well. Miller came in from the outfield to argue with Andrews and was sent back in a hurry. Otherwise the unpires had no trouble with the players.

The New Yorks rallied in the ninth inning, and came within an sec of at least tieing the score. Warner, who batted in place of Puhl went out on a bounder. After Foster and Colcolough had singled, Yan Haltren hit to McPhee, forcing Colcolough, Foster acoring on the play, Grady reached first on Corcoran's error, and when Wilson made his fourth hit of the game Van Haltren rin in. It was then up to Davis, but George surprised the 600 spectators by striking out, leaving men on second and first bases.

Hartman, who was hit twice in the arm on Tuesday, did not play. Puhl, who covered third, had little to do in the field and showed up poorly at the bat. Selbuch also had to lay off owing to a swollen hand. It seemed odd that Carrick had to oltch again, notwithstanding that he was in against the Cincinnatis on Tuesday morning and was hit quite hard. Meekin and Colcolough were on the bench. The scores:

UNIFORM ORDINANCE BILL SIGNED BY GOV. ROOSEVELT.

to Sidewalk Traffic, Speed Limits and A Quick Clean Up! Many Chauges of Importance to Riders a Carrying Bells and Lamps—More Results of Memorial Day Events on the Track. A letter from Senator Collins to Secretary

Treasurer Bull of the L. A. W. announces that the "Collins Uniform Bicycle Ordinance bill" was among those signed by Gov. Roosevelt last week. Wheelmen will find it greatly to their interests now to make themselves familiar with this bill. It repeals all city and town ordinances relating to bicycle riding on sidepaths or sidewalks, to carrying bells and lamps and to speed limits. This means the making void of a great many city and township regulations under which ar-rests have heretofore been made and fines imposed. No ordinance passed by any village or city is valid that prohibits cyclists from riding on sidewalks that have not been marked off from the road or improved by the local authoritles or the abbutting property owners The absurdity of declaring a foot-work path along a country road to be a sidewalk has long been apparent, but arrests have been made and fines imposed in cases where riders have been caught using such paths. Arrests for such "sidewalk "riding are no longer legal, and riders who know the law need not submit to being penalized by country Justices. Another feature that means an immediate change in many sections is that the law provides that $5 shall be the maximum penalty for a wheel rider who violates any or-dinance. The $10 fines imposed recently in the Flatbush Court, although they were saiu-tary in checking scorchers, are no longer per-missible.

liiders who are caught out at night without a light may now proceed in safety to theirshomes if they do not ride faster than six miles an hour and keep ringing a bell every few yards. These things are atipulated in this peculiar bill, which although called a "uniform ordinance" act, does not fix any uniform rule, but states what ordinances may and may not be enacted, and declares all those now existing which are in conflict to be void. It is likely that it will be some time before country constables and Justices become acquainted with this new law, and the value of riders noting the points stated is therefore apprarent.
